Integration

Program code for library managements system is non applicable due to the success rate of each function in the library system. The unit testing as previously stated in 2_unit_test file that everything works correctly. Doing any integration will testing would of prolonged the project from completion. Each function is works correctly with this simple library system.